

Misha Graves

CORRECTIONAL CHIEF DEPUTY RIVERSIDE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

Correctional Chief Misha Graves has 21 years of correctional experience. She joined the Riverside County Sheriff's Department in 1997. She began her career as a Correctional Deputy working a variety of assignments while assigned to the Robert Presley Detention Center (RPDC).

In 2006, Correctional Chief Graves was promoted to the rank of Correctional Corporal and assigned to the Larry D. Smith Correctional Facility (SCF). In 2008, she promoted to the rank of Correctional Sergeant. As a Correctional Sergeant, she served at both the Indio Jail and SCF and was assigned to various areas of jail operations within both jail facilities.

In 2012, Correctional Chief Graves was promoted to the rank of Correctional Lieutenant and assigned to the Indio Jail. She was transferred in 2014 to the Sheriff's Planning and Research Unit staff where she oversaw the design and early phases of construction of the John J. Benoit Detention Center (JBDC). Correctional Chief Graves was promoted to the rank of Correctional Captain in January 2016 and was assigned to command the Coordinated Custody Management Unit (CCMU). The CCMU encompasses the Sheriff's Inmate Training and Education Bureau (SITE-B), Riverside Alternative Sentencing Program (RASP), Supervised Electronic Confinement Program (SECP), Work Release Program (WRP), Headcount Management Unit (HMU), and leads the Department's AB 109 Realignment efforts with the entire jail system's 4,000 inmates.

In January 2017, Correctional Chief Graves was transferred from CCMU to the Cois M. Byrd Detention Center (CBDC), where she oversaw facility operations for the 1,100 inmate Riverside County jail facility located in Murrieta.

Sheriff Stan Sniff appointed Correctional Chief Graves to her current rank in April 2018. She is tasked with overseeing Corrections Operations, which consists of jail facilities in Blythe, Indio, Banning, Temecula and Riverside.

Correctional Chief Graves holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Workforce Education and Development and a Master of Science Degree in Education, Human Resources Training and Development, both from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Correctional Chief Graves resides in the city of Yucaipa with her daughter. She is actively involved with her church where she teaches and provides ministry.
